BIG HAUL BY ROBBERS.

They Secure $20,000 from an Express Safe at Colorado Springs.

ONLY TWO MEN IN THE ROBBERY.

They Are Believed to be A. J. Gray and J. C. Stuart, Who Escaped from Prison Recently, Where They Were Held for Another Express Robbery.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 13.—The express office at the Santa Fe depot in this city was robbed of $20,000 late Monday night. The money was part of a consignment of $70,000 sent from Denver to Cripple Creek, the remainder of which was in the safe, but was not found.

The stolen money was in currency of small denominations, and was received too late to be delivered to the bank. The package containing the money was placed in the depot safe, and both doors locked. There was nothing to indicate its value. Evidently the thieves knew of its existence. When train No. 6 came in there were other packages aboard with currency to the amount of $75,000 consigned to the same bank. These packages were delivered to the agent and placed in the safe with the other.

After the train departed Express Agent George Krout attended to some outside duties, and then entered the office. As he did so two men confronted him, with revolvers pointed at his head, and commanded him to throw up his hands. Krout, badly frightened, obeyed. Then one of the robbers, stepping close to the agent, said: "Not a word from you. We want you to open that safe and be quick about it. Hurry up."

Krout denied that there was any money in the safe. The revolver was pressed close to him, and he was told to open the safe or suffer the consequences. With trembling hands he slowly turned the combination. When the door swung open Krout explained that there was only one package, and as nothing to be picked up an envelope containing $20,000, which he handed to the short man. He then closed the heavy door. The robbers, securing satisfied that the agent told the truth, stepped away from the safe. Krout's action in handing out the $20,000 package and closing the doors of the safe saved the company $35,000.

The robbers then ordered Krout to undress himself and get into bed. After he had done so one of the robbers took pains to see that the quilts and comforters were drawn tightly over Krout's head and tucked down. Then Krout heard one of them say: "Now open the door and see if there is any one about."

Krout heard the door slide back and bump, and then one of the robbers said: "Wait now, we have missed something. Let us take a good look over the place and see."

When Krout plucked up courage to jump out of bed and get outside there was no one in sight. An alarm was given and armed posses scoured the vicinity, but no trace of the robbers was found. Finally two bloodhounds were put on the trail, and they are leading the pursuit.

The depot agent was not a hundred yards away from Krout's office while the robbery was being committed, but he did not see the robbers and knew nothing about the matter until informed by Krout.

The express company's officials believe that the robbery was committed by A. J. Gray, alias Sam Wells, and J. C. Stuart, alias C. J. Starr, who were arrested for the theft of $16,000 from the express wagon at Cripple Creek April 11, and who recently, in company with Tom McCarthy, escaped from jail in this city. R. T. Montgomery, who was a prisoner at the time of the escape, notified the police at Denver several days ago that Gray and Stuart plotted when in jail to rob the express company again. The officials of the company believe that the robbers had accomplices in the bank.

Rockafellow's Bondsmen Pay Up.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 13.—The litigation over the collection of the bond of ex-City Treasurer Rockafellow, whose private bank, with $52,000 of city moneys in it, failed in February, 1894, was settled last night. At the time of the failure Rockafellow's bondsmen declared that as the city had accepted interest from its funds in Rockafellow's bank it could not collect from its sureties. The city brought suit and obtained judgment for the full amount. The case was appealed to the supreme court, which ordered a new trial, intimating that the city could not collect the sinking fund, which amounted to $15,000, from the bondsmen. The latter were willing to cancel the bond, less the $15,000. Last night city councils conferred with the bondsmen, and rather than go to trial again decided to accept this proposition.

Murder Mystery Solved.

SIOUX CITY, Nov. 13.—The mysterious double tragedy which occurred in this city early on the morning of Aug. 25—the murder of Miss Ora Minter, of Nebraska, and Max Nonck—has been solved. The police said today that they had indisputable evidence that the dual crime was committed by "Kid" Gallagher and Alexander Chapin, who were sentenced to the Nebraska penitentiary for fifteen years on Monday for a murderous assault on the Kus family, near Pappillion. The men will be indicted by the grand jury here in order that they may be held when wanted here in the future.

A Ten-Year-Old Murderer.

CROSBY, Tenn., Nov. 13.—A 10-year-old son of George Dennis deliberately shot his 15-year-old sister through the head on Sunday night, killing her. Recently while the boy was sick he asked his sister to give him something to eat, but she refused, having instructions from the attending physician not to give him food except as directed. The boy grew angry and told her if she did not feed him he would kill her when he got well.

Died from Criminal Neglect.

ANDERSON, Ind., Nov. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett's child died Monday night. Dr. Wolfinn, a Christian scientist, had been attending it. His death return was: "Died from sin and fear." The authorities started investigation, and found that the child had died of a mild case of diphtheria, which might have been cured with medicine and attention. It was also found that the doctor and parents had relied on faith entirely, and the verdict also reads, "Death from criminal neglect." Warrants have been issued.

To Protect Railroad Employes.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 13.—In consideration of the article on corporations in the constitutional convention sections were adopted giving employes of railroads the same rights as passengers to recover damages when injured in the service of railroads through the negligence of the company or their fellow employes. All railroads operating in this state, by another section, are required to secure charters from the state, although they are chartered in other states.

Mrs. Stanton's Eightieth Birthday.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The 80th anniversary of the birth of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, the pioneer of woman's rights, was celebrated with great enthusiasm at the Metropolitan Opera House last evening. The celebration was conducted under the auspices of the National Council of Women of the United States, which includes a membership of 700,000 women. Mrs. Stanton was received with the greatest enthusiasm.

PHILADELPHIA INVESTIGATION.

Municipal Association Agent Addis Continues His Statements of Fraud.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—The second day's session of the senate investigating committee was held yesterday at the Hotel Metropole, with the same members present as on Monday. The entire session was taken up with the examination of General Agent Addis, of the Citizens' Municipal association. The testimony given related to the contracts for street cleaning, collection of garbage and street paving, and also the non-compliance with specifications by contractors and non-enforcement by the authorities. Lawyer Freedley conducted the examination.

Agent Addis said that the contracts for street cleaning were generally violated, and referred to the collection of ashes by saying that the carts, despite the regulations requiring tight lids, had none at all. As to garbage he said the general complaint was that it was not incinerated as required by ordinance of councils.

Referring to street paving, he said that councils' ordinance of April, 1895, required that close fitting blocks should be used. This, he said, was not done. During 1895, he said, the property owners paid $140,000 more than they should have paid, as fitted instead of irregular blocks should have been used.

The committee then adjourned until today, when Mr. Addis' examination was renewed.

It was announced around the lobbies of the hotel that the committee had determined to have but three sessions a week—on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. It was also stated that the quarter sessions room in the city hall had been secured for future meetings through the good offices of District Attorney Graham.

He Lived a Double Life.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The friends of the late Curtis E. Robinson, formerly a prominent real estate dealer of this city, and who died in 1894, leaving an estate worth $1,000,000, were amazed to learn yesterday that he is charged with having deserted a wife in Massachusetts, in the early sixties, when he came to Chicago, and his three children are probably surprised to find their right to inheritance challenged by Massachusetts relatives. At the time of his death Robinson lived with his three children, Mrs. Martha J. Ruprecht, Curtis E. Robinson, Jr., and Bessie D. Robinson. After his death his daughter, Mrs. Ruprecht, was made administratix of his estate. The Massachusetts relatives—brother, sister and children of a dead sister—claim that his children here are illegitimate, and that they are the legal heirs. Robinson's legal wife having died childless. They also claim that he never married his Chicago wife.

Maher Challenges the World.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—J. J. Quinn, the manager of Peter Maher, who knocked out O'Donnell so readily Monday night, makes this statement in behalf of the fighter: "Maher challenges any man in the world to fight for the championship, and he will not put the stakes so high that no one except a man with three millionaires behind him can accept. Maher will fight for $5,000 a side, in public or private, and he will go any place to do battle. South Africa not barred. He is particularly anxious to meet Fitzsimmons." Quinn said that Maher would not challenge Corbett, because Corbett had asked him as a personal favor not to do so, as he (Corbett) had retired.

Tried Train Wrecking for Revenge.

ANDERSON, Ind., Nov. 13.—Ira Hallenbaugh, 17 years old, pleaded guilty to an attempt to wreck the Chicago bound mail on the Pan Handle. Hallenbaugh said he had been to Anderson and wanted to go north. He got on a train and they put him off. For revenge he wedged the track to wreck the limited mail. It happened the train was late, and a through freight was on his time. The engineer was able to check the speed enough so that when he ran into the ties the damage was nominal. Hallenbaugh will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Six Held on a Murder Charge.

KOKOMO, Ind., Nov. 13.—The court of inquiry in the Lowery murder mystery in progress here brought out surprising developments yesterday, and six men are in jail, among them John Thompson and William A. Bell, of Windfall, the latter a brother and the former an uncle of the victim's widow. Lowery's dead body was found on Sunday in a stone quarry and had evidently been murdered.

Is Macco a Dictator?

LONDON, Nov. 13.—A dispatch to The Telegraph from Madrid asserts that the Cuban insurgents are becoming dissatisfied with the existing revolutionary government and General Macco's supremacy. It is claimed that General Macco intends to assume absolute tyrannical power in Cuba.

Has No Senatorial Aspirations.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13.—When seen in regard to the statement to the effect that he would be the Republican candidate for United States senator from Missouri, Mr. J. B. McCullagh, editor of the Globe Democrat, denied that he has any aspirations for that position.

MR. PULLMAN IN DANGER

His Life Threatened by a Crazy Window Cleaner

WHO WANTED TO KILL TWO MEN.

The Palace Car Magnate and the Manager of His Chicago Building Were the Victims Selected, and They Escaped Because He Hesitated Which to Kill First.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The life of George M. Pullman and that of John B. Griffin, the manager of the Pullman building in this city, were pronounced by an insane man last night. Both men were to have been shot and killed on or before the 17th and 27th of this month. The delay of the maniac in making up his mind as to who should be the first victim gave the police time to arrest him. The prisoner is William Sherman, who has been employed as a window cleaner around the Pullman building. A woman fortune teller is at present held responsible for the suggestion that placed the lives of Mr. Pullman and his manager in jeopardy, and the police are now endeavoring to find her, and ask why she advises her patrons to commit murder.

At 5 o'clock last evening word was brought to Manager Griffin that Sherman, usually a steady and reliable man, was going about the building making threats to kill him and Mr. Pullman. Griffin at once started out to find the window cleaner, but he had left the building, after repeating his threats to several people. Griffin then sent word to the police, and two officers were sent out to look for Sherman.

After searching for some time they found him in the freight elevator, and took him into custody. He had no hesitation in declaring that he intended to kill either Mr. Pullman or Griffin, or both. He said that during the afternoon he had consulted a fortune teller, because he was unable to sleep. The woman told him that he was troubled by secret enemies, and that unless he killed them before Nov. 17 or 27 they would kill him. She described the men to him, and the descriptions were those of Mr. Pullman and Mr. Griffin.

The woman would not tell him the names of the men unless he paid her $25. This he declined to do, as he knew the men by the descriptions she gave. Sherman said that he would have killed one of the men yesterday afternoon if he could have made up his mind which to take first. The man is probably insane, and was removed to the Detention hospital.

Rode Out of the State on Rails.

ASHLAND, Ky., Nov. 13.—At White Post, Pike county two Mormon elders who have been at work in West Virginia for some time crossed Tug river in defiance of the warnings of the farmers, and were exhorting a large congregation to accept the Mormon faith, when they were assailed by a band of men, who rode them out of the state on rails into West Virginia, but subjected them to no other indignity.

Pittsburg's Striking Plumbers Victorious.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 13.—The plumbers' strike in Pittsburg and Allegheny which was inaugurated on Monday has been settled and the men have returned to work. Demand for an increase of 10 per cent. in wages was granted by the masters, to go into effect the first Monday in December.

Disastrous Effect of Curiosity.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13.—At Lockland, a suburb of this city, a natural gas well was struck yesterday. Some one who wanted to see if it really was natural gas thoughtlessly applied a match. A terrible explosion followed, injuring John Kumler, Julius Hontag and C. F. Schmidt.

A Point for the Hyams Brothers.

TORONTO, Nov. 13.—In the trial of the Hyams brothers for the alleged murder of Willie Wells for life insurance the defense scored a victory when Judge Ferguson ruled out the evidence which the prosecution tried to introduce relative to Hyams brothers insuring the life of Martha Wells for $200,000. The prisoners were greatly relieved when the judge ruled in favor of the defense.

An Alleged Embezzling Treasurer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—D. Edgar Anthony, a lawyer living in Brooklyn, was arraigned in the Tombs court, charged with misappropriating the funds of the National Mutual Insurance company, of which he was treasurer. He entered a plea of not guilty, and was held in $10,000 bail. The amount of the alleged shortage is not known, but it is said to be much over $10,000.

Many French Suicides.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—Eighteen suicides have occurred in Paris and Lyons which can be traced to despondency resulting from losses on the bourse during the recent panic. Among the most prominent of those who have committed suicide is M. Colombet, proprietor of the well known Bank Colombet at Chatellerault. M. Colombet shot his wife before killing himself.

A CONVICT'S FORTUNE.

Stolen Property Amounting to $170,000 Unearthed by Boston's Police.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—The arrest of James Stevens Chaffee, of this city, by the police and the recovery of over $20,000 worth of stolen plunder was followed last night by even more startling discoveries. In addition to the property recovered on Monday stocks and bonds to the value of $141,600 (par value) were brought to the inspector's office. An agreement was found signed by Mrs. William Barrett by which she turned over all her husband's property to Chaffee. Barrett is a notorious criminal now serving a life sentence for murder in this state, and Chaffee claimed that all the stuff which was found on his premises has been given to him by Barrett in return for his having spent a great deal of money in Barrett's defense at the time of the murder trial. The charge against Chaffee is receiving stolen goods while knowing them to have been stolen.

The total amount of plunder secured by the police now reaches at least $170,000 in value.

Mrs. Ames, widow of the late Millionaire Frederick L. Ames, of this city, called at the inspector's office and identified a number of articles which were stolen from the Ames residence several years ago. She also recognized several articles which were stolen from the North Easton residence of the late ex-Governor Oliver Ames. Mr. Kidder, of the State street banking firm of Kidder, Peabody & Co., the discovery of whose collection of postage stamps in Chaffee's possession led to the latter's arrest, also called. He, too, recognized some of the goods which were stolen during a robbery at his Milton residence six years ago.

The police do not place much faith in the story that Chaffee is a brother of William Barrett.

Wants to Succeed Senator Gibson.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 13.—Congressman George L. Wellington, chairman of the Republican state committee, announces his candidacy for the United States senate to succeed Senator Charles H. Gibson. "I have decided to enter the contest for the senatorship, and I expect to win," said he. "There is no necessity for repealing the so called Eastern Shore law before the election of the senator. The fact that a resident of another part of the state is elected will be a virtual repeal of it, and in this instance it will be ignored. The United States senate, under the constitution, will seat any man who is a resident of the state, and will ignore the law in such a case, as it is clearly unconstitutional. Later in the session the statute will probably be repealed."

Captain Brewer Must Not Play Football.

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 13.—A great commotion was caused at Harvard yesterday afternoon by the announcement that the faculty had requested Captain Brewer, of the 'Varsity football eleven, to refrain from taking part in any football contests during the remainder of the season. In other words, the faculty has placed him on what is termed "athletic probation" for neglecting his studies. This is the first time in "the history" of Harvard college that such action has been taken by the faculty. The students characterized the action as another blow to football. Captain Brewer will still play in practice and do all he can to aid the team. Edward Wrightington will be field captain.

Cremated in a Chicago Fire.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—John Paranski was burned to death, his wife and 21-year-old son Martin fatally burned, and three other people badly hurt in a fire which destroyed two buildings on Noble street early in the morning. The fire was discovered by a policeman, who endeavored to arouse the family. This could not be done, and the fire soon had to break in the doors. The inmates of the cottage were all unconscious, and the fire had gained such headway that their rescue was effected with great difficulty. The father's body was burned to a crisp.

Mrs. Cougar Loses Her Suit.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—The jury in the libel suit brought by Mrs. Helen M. Cougar, the temperance advocate of Lafayette, Ind., against Congressman Morse, brought in a verdict last evening in favor of the defendant. Action was brought against Mr. Morse two years ago for $5,000 for alleged damages which Mrs. Cougar claimed she sustained because of language used by Mr. Morse during a political controversy. The case was tried last year in the United States circuit court and was won by Mr. Morse. A new trial was ordered and the case was brought up again, with the same result.

Many Lives Lost in a School Fire.

GRANA, West Indies, Nov. 13.—A school building here in which 150 children were present caught fire, and before anything could be done the whole building was ablaze, and in spite of heroic efforts the building was destroyed. Three, on charred bodies, melting that of the teacher, have so far been taken out. The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin, and two boys who had been severely punished by the teacher and suspended from school are believed to be the authors of the crime. They have been arrested, but so far have not confessed.

Pennsylvania's Official Vote.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 13.—The official vote of the belated Pennsylvania counties was received at the state department yesterday. The vote for state treasurer is as follows: Haywood, Rep., 455,715; Meyers, Dem., 282,984; Berry, Pro., 20,759; Dawson, Pop., 7,802; Anton, Soc. Labor, 1,326; scattering, 31. Haywood's plurality, 174,264. The leading candidate for judge of the superior court on the Republican ticket is Judge Rice, of Luzerne county, who polled 460,-382. Smith, Democrat, is elected over Yerkes, his closest competitor, by 6,214 votes.

Seized Schooner Released.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 13.—The admiralty court dismissed the charges pending against the sealing schooner E. B. Marvin, which was made a prisoner by the cutter Rush for alleged use of firearms in Behring sea, and restored the vessel to liberty. Chief Justice Davie held that Captain Yeare's explanation was amply sufficient.

AMBASSADORS ANGRY

At the Dilatory Tactics of the Sultan of Turkey.

WILL NOT WAIT MUCH LONGER.

A General Opinion in Constantinople That Abdul Hamid Can be Brought to a Realization of His Duty Only by a Show of Force.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 13.—Each day shows the situation of affairs here to be growing more threatening. The porte yesterday, replying to the identical notes of the ambassadors of Germany, Austria and Italy, simply said that information regarding the scheme for reform in Armenia would be forwarded to the representatives of the powers "without delay."

In other words, these three ambassadors, at least, have obtained no satisfaction at all. It is not yet known if the notes of the ambassadors of Great Britain, Russia and France have been replied to, but it is presumed that they were also assured that their requests for information regarding the proposed reforms would be complied with "without delay."

The action of the sultan in sanctioning the official note issued by the porte on Monday, asserting that "order has now been restored in all the districts," etc., causes much surprise among the diplomats. This really looks like mocking the ambassadors, and a second in importance only to the snub administered by the sultan to Great Britain in decorating Bahri Pasha and giving him the command of the troops going to Zeitoun, after he had been removed from a governorship, at the instance of the British ambassador, Sir Philip Currie, for his ill treatment of Armenians.

As to order being restored in the disturbed districts it need only be said that the mobilization of about 150,000 troops to be sent to these districts is progressing as actively as the Turkish government can push such an undertaking, hampered as it is by lack of funds and the incompetency of its officials. Then, again, advices just received here announce fresh disturbances at Marash, Birlis and Sivas, with their attendant massacres.

It was stated in European official circles here that as a result of an additional exchange of views between the powers, through their representatives here and at the different capitals, it is believed that a joint course of action, involving a display of naval and, possibly, military force, has already been decided upon, with a view of restoring order in Armenia, recent events having clearly demonstrated that the sultan has no intention of really carrying out the scheme for reform agreed upon some time ago after so much delay and annoyance. Certain it is that the sultan will not be allowed to trifle with the ambassadors for many days longer.

A prominent member of the diplomatic corps is quoted as saying that "the end of all this wretched business is fast approaching." It is understood that the powers have about decided that further "identical notes" or other such communications are useless in the case of Abdul Hamid, and that only prompt and efficient military action is likely to have any influence upon him.

According to official Turkish advices received by the government the Armenians of Zeitoun have, since capturing the battalion of Turkish troops and practically obtaining possession of the city, attacked the village of Tehoukour Hissar, killed thirty-five Mussulmans, pillaged a house at Dinghel and carried off the arms and cattle of the inhabitants of that neighborhood. The Armenians are said to have assassinated the secretary of the collector of customs of that part of the country.

The vali of Adana, a town situated some distance from Zeitoun and nearer the coast, telegraphs that 200 Armenians, disguised as Circassians, have attacked and plundered the Mussulman village of Zeitunbeli and Narl, killing a number of the inhabitants.

It is believed in some Armenian quarters here that the estimate of 10,000 Armenians killed during the recent massacres may turn out to be considerably under the real total, and that the number may come nearer 15,000 than 10,000.

Knocked Out in Four Rounds.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13.—A large crowd was present at the Olympic club here last night to witness Jimmy Ryan and George Johnson, colored, fight ten rounds for $300. Johnson was the taller and heavier, and for three rounds displayed science. In the fourth round the colored man swung his right, but was countered with a jab on the chin that raised him from the floor. He fell heavily and was rendered unconscious. Ryan was awarded the prize.

Miss Nethersole Visits Mrs. Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Miss Olga Nethersole, the distinguished English actress, who is playing in this city, visited Mrs. Cleveland at the suburban residence at Woodley yesterday by special invitation, and spent the afternoon with her. Mrs. Cleveland had met Miss Nethersole on a former occasion, and had been charmed with her personality.

For washing Dishes,

there's nothing like Pearline. Why don't you begin the use of it in that way, if you're one of the timid sisters who still think that Pearline "eats the clothes?" Then you can soak things in it for a year or two, and test it in every way, until you become convinced that Pearline can't do any harm. But it won't eat your dishes, that's sure. It won't clog up the sink pipes, either, as soap does. And that cloudy effect that you've probably noticed on cut glass and china when it's washed with soap—that won't be there if you wash it with Pearline.

Send it Back Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back. 412 JAMES PYLE, New York.

SPURS TO ACTION.

The Very Simple Thing That Brought Mr. Griddletop Back to Life.

"Some men need one spur, some another," said Mr. Gratebar.

"Now, there was my friend Sylvanus Griddletop. Mr. Griddletop was a man with a fair income, which, when the financial cyclone came along, was very greatly reduced. Mr. Griddletop promptly shortened sail to accommodate himself to the altered weather; he economized in all directions, and he was surprised to find how much he could economize; and while the new order of things wasn't like the old, it was gratifying to Mr. Griddletop to discover that it still afforded some measure of comfort.

"At last the financial cyclone passed, but Mr. Griddletop, who had accepted the changed situation manfully, now discovered that in the course of that enforced period of comparative idleness his manliness had given way to sluggishness; he had found it quite possible to live upon his reduced means, and now, instead of making an effort, he did as men sometimes do in like circumstances—he settled down into a placid, dull contentment with what he had.

"One of the economies that Mr. Griddletop began to practice immediately upon the curtailment of his income had been that of blacking his own shoes. There had seemed no easier way of saving $18 a year than this, and he had found the work easy enough, without realizing at the time that this, like many another economy, like giving up going to the theater, for instance, meant the cutting off of so much communication with the world, and so tended to the gradual narrowing of his existence.

"One day, when he had occasion to see a man on a matter of business, finding his shoes in a not very presentable condition, Mr. Griddletop stepped up on a bootblack's stand and took his seat in the comfortable chair, as he had not done in a year before, and put his feet upon the metal footrests. It was like stepping back into the world from which he had been so long apart; it awakened in him a desire for all the old time activities and pleasures of life. He stepped down from the bootblack's stand with a new ambition. It was for him just the needed spur to action."—New York Sun.

STARTLED THE OLD LADY.

An Inquisitive Youth Tumbled Over a Partition Upon a Spinster's Bed.

"When Mount Tabor, N. J., was first taken possession of by the Newark conference of the Methodist Episcopal church," said a clergyman of that denomination recently, "we had little money with which to clear up the grounds and erect the first buildings necessary. After putting up a sort of open air pavilion in which the preaching services could be held, we began to cast around for some buildings where transient guests might be accommodated.

"The structure resulting from this necessity was a long frame building, which was christened the 'Tabor House.' In constructing the house on as economical a basis as possible the partitions were not run all the way up to the rafters and the room was not ceiled.

"I shall never forget," continued the minister, "one of my first nights in this rather crude hotel. After I had retired I was suddenly aroused with a start by the most unearthly shriek.

"'Murder! Thieves! Robbers! Help! Help!' a woman was shouting at the top of her lungs.

"I hustled out into the narrow hall in my nightrobe and found others in the same attire—both men and women—running around in a distracted way. We all stepped before a door from within which the sounds proceeded.

"'You beast! Help! Help! Murder!' still came the cries.

"There was a scuffling from within, and suddenly the door opened and a woman, gowned, parting, with wild and dishevelled locks, appeared at the door clutching a boy, who was more frightened even than was the woman.

"One glance solved it. The boy was the son of a woman occupying the adjoining room. The little fellow, out of curiosity, had climbed to the top of the partition, and losing his balance, had fallen over into the next room, landing on the bed of a rather elderly spinster.

"The ridiculousness of the whole affair seemed to dawn upon all at the same time, and every one joined in a good, hearty laugh. The boy was punished, and the old maid left the next day."—New York Herald.

A Typical English Inn.

The inn was set close to the river, and although the highroad ran a mile farther inland the Angel inn had the air of having seen more stirring times. The little inn sitting room was parlor and taproom in one: its chairs opened friendly arms, bits of old silver gleamed on the mantelshelf and low settles, cupboards and tables of antique make were suggestive of the dead and gone figures that had peopled the cozy room. In the smile of the genial host there was the welcome which imagination lends to mine host of the coaching period.—"A Cruise on the Norfolk Broads" in Century.

A Dangerous Remedy.

Bicarbonate of potassa is a remedy in common use in throat troubles. But it is not generally known that it should be used with discretion. A strong 32-year-old man at Braunschweig, instead of merely dissolving a little of the potassa in water for a gargle, poured a large quantity into a glassful of water and then swallowed the dose. He died a few hours later after terrible suffering.—New York World.

The Real Labor.

"Yes," said Mrs. Hunnimune, "I learned to cook without any difficulty at all. There was only one trouble about it."

"What was that?"

"Educating my husband's appetite."—Washington Star.

A Real Hustler.

An amusing story comes from the studios of Paris. In many of the impressionist schools of artists washing blue is largely employed to produce the tints which will best convey mysterious and aesthetic effects. A young artist lately took two of his newest inspirations, in which starch had been largely consumed, to one of the well known dealers in Paris and the latter, pitying rather than admiring, offered a small sum for both pieces and consented to place them on show. The next day a tall American presented himself in the shop, and drawing out his checkbook eagerly demanded the price of one of the pictures.

For a moment the dealer was tempted to believe in the whims of his protege and the wisdom of his purchase. But the American was no illusionist if the artist was. He said:

"I guess, sir, it doesn't matter much to me what this picture does or does not represent. This noble blue comes from my own factory in Chicago. I knew it at once by the azure tint, which is a secret of our firm. We call it Freshness and Beauty starch; that's what we call it." He then obtained the address of the artist and commissioned him to paint a large picture with the inscription: "This work of art is painted entirely with the starches manufactured by Messrs. Blank & Co. of Chicago. Prize of so many dollars to the guesser who comes nearest to its meaning."—Pall Mall Gazette.

A Sure Cure.

"Hello, Bill! You seem in rare good spirits. What's made you so?"

"Master sent me to buy half a pound of cheese. On the way I dropped it in the mud and master said I could eat it myself."—Moss Culpe.

WHAT ABOUT OUR KIDNEYS?

SOME FACTS ABOUT THEIR PAINS AND DISEASES.

The Symptoms of Sick Kidneys and the Diseases That Sick Kidneys Will Cause—A Sure Cure for the Kidneys and for These Diseases.

There are a great many people who don't know that the kidneys are simply filters.

All the blood made by the food we eat passes through our kidneys.

The kidneys separate what is bad from what is good, what is unhealthy from what is healthy, throw out the bad and let the good pass on to nourish our body.

And this is going on every minute of our lives.

Some folks overwork their kidneys.

They have to suffer the consequences.

But the consequences would not be so bad if they would take Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

The kidneys get overwork from worry, hard work of the body or mind, excesses, overeating, etc.

Worry is probably the most common of these causes.

Overwork of the kidneys makes them sick, and they make us sick.

When the kidneys are sick, the blood suffers. It gets poor, thin, unhealthy, poisonous.

When our kidneys are sick we may have Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Nephritis and other dangerous kidney troubles.

Or we may have Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, General Muscular Weakness, etc.; or Anæmia, Pale and Sallow complexion, Chlorosis or Green Sickness, Dizziness, etc.; or Skin Diseases, Pimples, Blotches, Eruptions, etc.

It may seem wonderful that one medicine should be able to cure all these diseases, but when we remember, that they are all caused by impure blood, and that the impure blood is caused by the kidneys, it becomes a question of simple common sense.

The kidneys make pure blood.

Pure blood means health.

Therefore, when you have diseases of impure blood, cure your kidneys with Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

This will make you well and strong and hearty.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills contain, in concentrated form, special vegetable drugs which cure and renew the kidneys.

The combination from which they are made is found in no other medicine or prescription. It was first used by Dr. Hobb in his private practice many years ago, and was so unfailingly successful that his original prescription was finally made up into Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills. The concentrated extract of Asparagus, which is the principal ingredient, is prepared exclusively by the Hobb's Medicine Co., under a special process.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills will cure you when you are sick.

They will put new blood and new life into you. They will give you new ambition, new looks and new brightness of eyes and skin.

A few doses will relieve. A few boxes will cure.

Of all druggists, or mailed prepaid to any address for 50 cents a box.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and aids to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

WIVES AS TREASURERS.

A Man Whose Wife Carried the Purse—A Bachelor's Wisdom.

Two passengers on a New Haven train approaching the city a few mornings ago conversed together in a loud tone—that is, one of them, who was bluff, hearty, stout and a bachelor, talked in a particularly loud voice, while his companion, who was thin, meek and a benedict, answered in lower tones, which were still not inaudible after the passengers in the seats near by began to take an interest in the conversation.

"No," said the bachelor, "they want me to get married, but I tell them that I've seen enough of married people and I don't care to be tied down the way most of them are. Why, there was a man down in our place died not long ago, and the widow came down to get his wages. He had died on a Friday, and he had a week's wages coming to him. You ought to have seen that widow when she found out how much he got a week. He had been taking his wages home to her every week and giving it all to her to divide, as she supposed. But when she found out that he had been getting $3 a week more all the time she seemed to wish that he were alive again just for a little while, but I guess that he would just as soon have been dead if he had had his choice then. I have heard lots of people say that you ought to take all your money home to your wife, but I don't want any one telling me how much I shall spend for carfare or luncheon."

"Well, there is something in that," said the married man basely. He was a particularly humble looking man, who crouched down in his seat as if he did not dare sit upright, but his wife was far away, and he was emboldened, in the confidences of talk on a suburban train, to reveal his woes. "Now, I do feel badly sometimes when I want to take a man out to luncheon with me and spend some money in entertaining him. If I don't do it, I cannot very well keep his custom, and if I do it, it costs so much money that my wife, who knows just what I receive, thinks I am dreadfully extravagant, and talks to me about the way in which I am wasting money."

"Yes, that's just it," said the loud voiced bachelor. "If you don't spend money you lose trade, and yet you married men are half of you afraid to go around and spend money freely on your customers. I know a man in our store who doesn't dare spend more than 35 cents for luncheon for fear his wife will find it out. They talk about letting your wife spend all your money, but for my part I'd rather spend it myself, and that's why I tell all my friends that I am not going to be married."

Just at this point the train entered the Park avenue tunnel and the voice of the base revealer of secrets, who did not worthily support the part of the married man, was lost in the rumble of the train.—New York Tribune.

AMONG THE LEPERS.

Those of Molokai Have Many Ways of Occupying Their Time.

Here in this sea girt asylum of people afflicted with the most dreaded of known diseases, from which there is no escape but through the portals of death, is presented one of the noblest and brightest pictures of the glory of Christianity, with its marvels of self sacrifice amid surroundings and under circumstances the most depressing. These poor victims, doomed to the ravages of a disease that completes its deadly work in an average of four or five years, the progress of which is marked with the most significant and destructive precision, can alone appreciate at its true worth the Christian heroism of those who are laboring among them, following in the footsteps of the venerated Father Damien, and ready as he was to accept, if need be, the burden of the disease itself in their behalf. And yet unhappiness does not chill the air of Molokai. Death has lost its terrors by reason of its very familiarity, and by the silver lining their faith has given the cloud. The Hawaiians are naturally a light hearted people, and even the shadow of leprosy cannot suppress for long their buoyant temperament.

In Molokai lepers may be found engaged in pleasant pastimes, and among them one may hear the light and cheerful words of greeting and see the sunny smiles. Horse racing, which is a favorite national sport, is indulged in frequently. Nor are the lepers idlers; far from it. They work, while able, in the cultivation of the ground and in other ways, and altogether lead a far pleasanter and more contented life than might be supposed. The improvement of their condition, as compared with what it was when Father Damien took up his residence on the island in 1873, has been chiefly brought about by his influence and the labors of his successors.—Donahoe's Magazine.

Marie de' Medici.

Marie de' Medici, the second wife of Henry IV, who married her in 1600, a year after his divorce from Margaret of Valois, was an Italian beauty, petite and dark. She was hot tempered, and her intolerance of her husband's infidelities caused constant domestic bickering. Her voice was shrill, and when angry she raised it almost to a scream, so that when the king and queen were engaged in a domestic argument everybody in the house knew all about it.

SUPREME JUSTICE CARLISLE.

The Secretary May be Appointed to Justice Jackson's Vacant Seat.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The Post today says that Secretary Carlisle may be appointed to the supreme court bench to succeed the late Justice Jackson. The Post says that some time ago the president had practically fixed upon Judge Rufus Peckham, of the New York court of appeals, for the place. It continues: "All these plans are said to have been changed by recent elections. Had Kentucky elected a Democratic legislature it was expected that Mr. Carlisle would step from the cabinet into the senate. This anticipation cannot now be realized. The political revolution in Kentucky has also materially affected Mr. Carlisle's chances for the presidential nomination. Should Mr. Carlisle leave the treasury his place will undoubtedly be filled by a New York man, and Charles S. Fairchild is said to have been practically determined upon for the position."

Killed by a Bursting Flywheel.

ALBANY, Nov. 13.—The monster twenty ton flywheel in the power house of the Albany railway burst late yesterday afternoon, and the hurling fragment inflicted injuries from which John Pichl died last night at the hospital. The others hurt are: Charles Meyers, supervisor elect, leg and ankle bruised; Thuiss, head and left breast lacerated, may die; John Faust, head and legs injured. One of the pieces crashed through Charles Meyers' saloon, across the street. In this were the dead man and the others injured. Another piece, weighing two tons, flew across a house two blocks away and tore off the side of Elizabeth Mace's residence, but injured no one.

Chicago Day at Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Nov. 13.—A dozen speakers at the Cotton States exposition yesterday continued the work of expunging sectionalism, for which this fair has become famous. It was Chicago day and a large representation was present from the World's fair city. Among those present were Columbian exposition directors. Mayor King spoke for Atlanta. Mayor Swift responded for Chicago. Attorney General Terrell represented Governor Atkinson in speaking for Georgia, and Governor Altgeld responded for Illinois. Speeches were also made by President Collier, of the exposition, President Higginbotham of the World's fair, and many others.

Death of a Popular Landlord.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—John B Drake, one of the best known hotel men in the United States, and for many years the senior member of the firm operating the Grand Pacific hotel in this city, died last night of paralysis of the heart. Mr. Drake had been in poor health for over a year, but no immediate fatal termination of his illness was looked for. Mr. Drake had amassed a large fortune in the hotel business, and was one of the most successful men in his line in the country. He retired from the hotel business last May.

Prisoners Prepared for Suicide.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 13.—Sheriff Jurgens has discovered a plot among the prisoners confined in the county jail, charged with murder, to defeat the ends of justice by committing suicide. By some means as yet unknown the prisoners in the murderer's row had gained possession of enough morphine to kill a score of people. Eugene Stanley died the day he was to have been taken to the penitentiary for life, and yesterday when Bill Gay was found guilty of murder in the first degree his cell was searched and morphine discovered. The plot was then disclosed by the prisoner.

A Murderer's Confession.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 13.—Edward Campbell, alias Charles Rice, alias George Smith, in jail here has made a confession to the murder of Maggie McGraw, of No. 23 River street, Newark, N. J. He says he hit the woman over the head with a chair during a drunken row, and that she died from the effects of the blow. The Newark authorities have been notified.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 13.—The branch of the A. R. U. at Devil's Lake has formally declared the Great Northern strike off. This practically ends the trouble between the company and its men, as the lieutenants at Helena, Columbia Falls and Spokane had already come to terms with the officials.

Seized for Illegal Fishing.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 13.—Word has reached here to the effect that while a fleet of American fishing boats were engaged in lifting their nets near North Bass Island the Canadian cruiser Petrel appeared. Two boats with crews of two men each were confiscated. The crews of the boats that escaped claim that they were fishing in Canadian waters.

The Czarina's Coming Accouchement.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—A dispatch to The Chronicle from Coburg says that it is expected that the accouchement of the czarina will take place toward the end of November.

Mr. Wanamaker Made It Good.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 13.—Members of the Indiana Republican state central committee say that John Wanamaker has sent $10,000 to Indiana in settlement of a claim the Republicans have urged since 1892. The story is that Mr. Wanamaker, presumably speaking for the national committee, agreed to stand good for the amount when the Republicans, under stress of weather, asked for help. W. T. Durbin, of Anderson, depending upon the national committee's promise, borrowed the money for the committee, and has been trying to secure settlement since.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

In Hamilton county the Democratic county officers were elected with one exception. The majorities are small, from eight to ninety-six, but the Amsterdam Sentinel, grateful for very small things in this year of Democratic disaster, exclaims: "God bless Hamilton county! It is an oasis in the desert of Democratic despair."

Grief sometimes kills. John Jennings, an eleven-year-old boy, gave way to inconsolable grief when the coffin containing his mother's body was lowered in a grave in St. Peter's Cemetery in Jersey City, yesterday. On the way home from the cemetery he cried until he became unconscious and died while being taken to the hospital. A physician said he died from heart failure due to grief.

A very silly election bet is reported from Brooklyn. A Protestant and a Catholic pledged themselves that the loser would change his faith and the Catholic, if he fulfills the conditions of the wager, will now become a Methodist. At first blush it seems as if these bettors had something very important at issue, but they had not. A man who will wager his religious belief hasn't any more religious belief than a penny forfeit will cover and these Brooklyn men were really betting air.

The attempt of certain Republican Supervisors to prevent counsel for one of the Democratic candidates for Justice of the Supreme Court having free and full opportunity to watch the canvass of the vote of the county, was most ill advised. For once the law, fair play and common sense were all on the side of the lawyers and after the Republican leaders had put themselves in a false and untenable position they were forced to yield everything that was demanded of them.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Little Business Transacted at Last Night's Regular Meeting.

A regular meeting of the Board of Education was held last evening. Present, President H. W. Wiggins and Messrs. Corwin, Howell, Harding, Dayton, Powelson and Superintendent Tuthill.

EX-COMPTROLLER WEMPLE, A FIRE-BUG.

Under Arrest for Setting Fire to a House in Fonda—Suspected of Having Caused Other Fires—Believed to Have Become Insane.

BY UNITED PRESS.

FONDA, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Ex-Comptroller Edward S. Wemple was arrested, this morning, charged with setting fire to a new dwelling house in Fonda on Sunday. Shavings and newspapers soaked in oil were placed against a door. The flames were discovered and extinguished in time to save the house.

Wemple is also charged with having set fire to the Wemple foundry building which was burned, a few weeks ago. A Citizens' Committee has been at work collecting evidence since the foundry burned. He is also suspected of having caused other incendiary fires in Fultonville during the past few months.

Wemple is of an old family and is the best known Democratic politician in the Mohawk Valley. In addition to having been elected State Comptroller, he has been a Member of Congress, Member of Assembly and State Senator. It is thought his mind is affected and that a mania for burning buildings has developed. He is forty-nine years of age. After the death of his father he became owner of the Wemple foundry property at Fultonville.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Several Cases Disposed of Yesterday—Work of the Grand Jury—Murder Trial Next Week.

On the opening of court, yesterday morning, a motion to set aside a verdict in the case of Mrs. Gignoux vs. Stephen W. Fullerton, was denied.

A Port Jervis case, Vandelia Caskey vs. Clark Caskey, was tried. Plaintiff is a half-sister of the defendant and suit was brought on a note of $500 given by defendant for her share of her father's estate. Defense was that Caskey had provided plaintiff with a home, clothing and other necessities, and that there was an understanding that this was to be accepted as a payment of the note. Plaintiff claimed that the work she did more than paid all expenses on her account. Verdict for plaintiff for $560.

Mary Shaw vs. Edward Ling. Plaintiff is the widow of a man killed in the defendant's brick yard by the caving in of a clay bank and sued for damages for her husband's death. A non-suit was granted on the ground of contributory negligence.

Annie Reall vs. City of Newburgh. This is the second time this case has been in court. Plaintiff fell on an icy sidewalk in February, 1894 and was permanently crippled. The jury's verdict was no cause of action.

The Grand Jury is hard at work. Many witnesses have been sub pœnaed in the case of Joe Donohue, of Newburgh, charged with assaulting his cousin, Geo. Donohue.

An extra panel of 100 jurors was ordered drawn for the trial of Geo. Jarrett, charged with the murder at Highland Falls of a tramp known as the "New York Pug," which will begin Monday of next week.

Nerves and Blood

Are inseparably connected. The former depend simply, solely, solidly upon the latter. If it is pure they are properly fed and there is no "nervousness." If it is impure they are fed on refuse, therefore cannot be strong and healthy, and the horrors of nervous prostration result. The only sensible way to cure is: Feed the nerves on pure blood. Make pure rich, red blood and keep it pure, by taking

HYMENEAL.

Musgrave-Osborn.

Mr. Darwin Everett Musgrave and Miss Susie VanNess, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Osborn, were united in marriage at the First Baptist Church, at 3:30 o'clock, this afternoon, Rev. Frank A. Heath, the pastor of the church, officiating.

The altar was very handsomely decorated for the occasion by Belding, the florist, palms, ferns, and chrysanthemums being very artistically arranged.

The bridesmaid was Miss Thirza Musgrave, sister of the groom, and Mr. Sheridan J. Bross was best man. The ushers were Messrs. D. S. Lounsberry, Alfred Slater and B. F. Stevens, of this city, and Mr. Fred. LeBeau, of Passaic.

As the bridal party entered the church, a wedding march was played by Mrs. Louis E. Hedge.

The bride wore a handsome blue traveling suit with ribbon and brocaded velvet trimmings and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid wore a dark green dress with velvet trimmings and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The groom's present to the bride was a brooche set with pearls and emeralds and the bride's present to the groom was a scarf pin set with a garnet and pearls. The bridesmaid and ushers also received presents.

After the ceremony and congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Musgrave were driven to the Erie depot, where they took train 30 for New York. On Friday evening they will give a reception at the residence of the groom's mother, No. 161 South street.

The ARGUS unites with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Musgrave in hearty congratulations and the best of good wishes.

THINKS HE'S GOT 'EM.

Threw Up a Snake With a Toad's Head and Satan's Horns—More to Follow.

Winfield White, a well known colored man, of this city, has suffered from a stomach trouble for some time and has taken salt quite freely to relieve it. Last Thursday he took too much salt and drank great quantities of water and finally his stomach revolted and he began to vomit, and threw up something which his wife describes as a snake ten inches long, with a toad's head, and two horns projecting from its forehead a la Devil.

His wife at once threw the snake in the stove and burned it up.

She says her husband has been "hoodooed" by some one, who gave him a pair of young snakes in a glass of water; that the snakes have grown to maturity and are breeding in his stomach and the one of which he was relieved is one of the young brood.

Successful operations by surgeons are reported and published to the surgeon's credit, and it is also a benefit to the public to know of his skill. In this way Drs. Jones and Potter and their ability to cure rupture have become familiar to the public. Russell House, Thursdays. 3

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness which follows the use of Syrup Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time medicine and the cheap substitute sometimes offered, but never accepted by the well informed.

THE ENGINEER WAS TO BLAME.

So Says the Coroner's Jury in the L. and H. Boiler Explosion Case—Allowed the Water in the Boiler to Become Low and Injected Cold Water on a Hot Crown Sheet.

The Coroner's Jury in the inquest in the cases of the employes of the Lehigh and Hudson River Railroad Company, who were killed by the explosion of a locomotive boiler, last Sunday morning, met at Warwick, yesterday, and returned the following verdict:

We find that Martin O'Neill, William Cooper and James L. Sloan, came to their deaths by the explosion of locomotive boiler on engine 13, on the morning of Nov. 10th, 1895, between Lake Station and Stone Bridge, through the negligence of the engineer in charge, by allowing the water to get too low.

The testimony of the survivors of the crew of the ill-fated train, showed that the conductor of the train was left at Maybrook, through misunderstandings of the engineer and flagman, and that his absence was not discovered until the train had nearly reached Greycourt. The journey was continued to Hudson Junction where the cars were sidetracked and the engineer, accompanied by the fireman and two of the crew, returned to Maybrook on the engine, for the conductor.

Upon their return to Hudson Junction, water was taken in the tank, but was not injected into the boiler, at that time, as there is a heavy up grade to Lake Station, and it was necessary to use all the available steam pressure in order to ascend the grade. As much of the running time had already been lost, the engineer did not want to wait for steam, which he would have been compelled to do had he injected water into the boiler.

According to the evidence of the Master Mechanic of the road, Mr. Fred. M. Mast, the water, in his opinion, was so low in the boiler, that when the engine was ascending the hill the water ran to the back part of the boiler, exposing the crown sheet in the forward end. That when the apex of the hill had been reached and the descent begun, the engineer opened the injector and the cold water striking the dry crown sheet caused the explosion.

The engine had been thoroughly overhauled and tested, six weeks ago, and was then found to be perfectly sound and in excellent order.

A CHRISTMAS SOUVENIR.

Handsomely Illustrated With Views of Middletown.

Messrs. W. R. Southwell and A. P. L. Rifenbary are actively engaged in arranging for the publication of a "Christmas Souvenir Book," of the city of Middletown.

The work will contain sixteen pages of photo-gravure illustrations of buildings and scenes in the city, among them being the proposed new academy, and other school buildings, the armory, State and Terrell Hospitals, Wickham avenue depot, all of the churches, views of the principal business streets, and private residences. They have already secured subscriptions for nine hundred copies of the book which will be sold for forty-five cents. The souvenir will be ready for delivery about the middle of December.

The photographs are the work of Mr. H. C. Ogden, who yesterday afternoon, photographed Excelsiors' new truck and Eagles' patrol wagon, cuts of which will adorn pages of the souvenir.

Two Kinds of Firemen.

Kingston firemen who went to Marlborough, in response to an appeal for help when that village was threatened with destruction by fire in September, have rendered bills for their services. Newburgh firemen, who arrived before those from Kingston and held the fire in check, have not thought of asking for pay.

A Neglected Horse.

A horse, attached to a light buggy, was tied to a telephone pole, on Orchard street, at 8 o'clock, yesterday morning, and at 6 o'clock, last evening, it was still there, and had had neither food nor water during the day. The owner was thoughtful enough to put two blankets on the animal.

Earthquake shock Felt in Kingston.

City Engineer Klingberg and other citizens of Kingston aver that at 2.15 o'clock, yesterday morning, they felt a slight earthquake shock, which lasted several seconds. The trembling of the earth was sufficient to shake furniture and a rumbling noise was plainly heard.

Successful Fishermen.

Messrs. J. Frank and Samuel D. Tuthill returned, last night, from a day's fishing in Basha's Kill, near Westbrookville, with twenty-nine pickerel, which weighed thirty-four pounds.

No Bricks.

Work on the East Main street paving was suspended to-day, for the old reason, no bricks. Providence is a great deal more kindly to this job than the Catskill Brick Company.

WATCHING THE COUNT.

Counsel for Martin J. Keogh Closely Scanning the Election Returns—A Newburgh District in Which the Statement of Vote and the Return of Ballots Are Sixty-seven Votes Apart.

The lawyers who represent Martin J. Keogh, one of the Democratic candidates for Justice of the Supreme Court, before the Board of County Canvassers, when they succeeded in getting before the canvassing committees, yesterday, offered no factious opposition to the acceptance of the returns, but scrutinized them carefully in the interest of their client.

In the third district of the town of Montgomery an apparent error of three votes against Mr. Keogh was discovered and in the return from the second district of the Sixth Ward, of Newburgh, a discrepancy of sixty-seven votes in Mr. Hirsh's favor was found between the vote as returned and the inspectors' endorsements on the samples of the ballots attached to the returns. The return will be sent back for explanation or correction, but in its present form it appears that the inspectors have given the Republican candidates sixty-seven votes that ought to have been credited to the Democratic candidates.

EXCELSIOR'S NEW TRUCK

A Public Test of the Apparatus Given, Yesterday—Everything Satisfactory—The Company Dines at Seeholzer's.

A very satisfactory exhibition of Excelsior Hook and Ladder Company's new apparatus was given, yesterday afternoon, in the presence of the Mayor and Common Council and many citizens. The truck was taken to Orchard street, and all of the ladders were raised against the Low Building and the First Presbyterian Church. The sixty-five feet extension ladder was placed against the church and twelve men ascended it. There was not a perceptible bend or quiver to the ladder under this great weight. Ten men also ascended the thirty-five feet ladder with the same result.

The test was made under the direction of Foreman Schoonmaker, of Excelsiors, and the Board of Engineers.

The general opinion of all was that the apparatus is fully up to the standard of the requirements of the specifications and that the truck is just what Middletown needs.

Through the courtesy of Eagle Hose Company, its handsome team was used during the exhibition and made a fine run on North street, from Low avenue to Prospect street.

At 6 o'clock, a supper was served at Seeholzer's Wickham avenue restaurant. Mayor Stansbury and the members of the Common Council, Chief Thorpe and Assistants Higham and Schmitt were present as guests of the company.

There were sixty-four people in the party, and it is needless to add that the good things provided by Mr. Seeholzer were thoroughly enjoyed. Contrary to the expectations of many of the members there was no speech-making, and, therefore, the Mayor and Aldermen did not give a public expression of their opinions of the merits of the truck. There is little doubt, however, that the truck will be accepted by the city after several minor defects and missing parts have been remedied and supplied by the manufacturers.

FOR PRO RATA MILK FREIGHTS.

Farmers Preparing for the Presentation of Their Case to the Interstate Commerce Commissioners

Mr. George R. Vail, of Chester, representing the Milk Producers' Protective Association, is in town, to-day, collecting the money subscribed by business men, several weeks ago, to aid the farmers in their efforts to secure pro rata freights on milk. The association lacks about $1,000 of the amount necessary to defray the expenses of properly presenting the case to the Interstate Commerce Commission, and Mr. Vail will go among farmers and others interested and endeavor to raise the money that is still needed.

The association has been notified that the case will be heard by the Interstate Commerce Commission at the Federal Building in New York city, Nov. 18th, at 10 o'clock.

Sixteen railroad companies are named in the complaint. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, which brings to the city most of the long haul milk, has been selected as the company against which the principal fight will be made, the other companies being brought in incidentally.

Hon Joseph H. Choate, principal counsel for the farmers, is confident that he has such a strong case that the decision will be in his favor. He will show that in all the principal cities of the country except New York, pro rata milk freights prevail and that some of the roads charging a uniform tariff on New York milk, make long and short haul rates on milk delivered at other cities.

Water for an Hour a Day—Cataracts First Hop—A New Industry in the Pierce Factory—G. A. R. Staff Appointment—Out of One Scrape and in Another.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—It is expected that the new pump at the water works will be placed in operation, to-day. The Water Commissioners have in contemplation the plan of turning water into the mains at stated periods, probably for an hour every day or every other day provided the consumers will guard carefully against all waste and see that all the valves and faucets are kept closed. It is probable that the experiment will be tried as soon as the pump is set in motion.

—Cataract Engine and Hose Co. will give the first of the series of promenade concerts at Music Hall, Thursday night. Berg's orchestra of five pieces will furnish music for the occasion. Tickets can be obtained of every member of the committee, or at the box office on the evening of the concert.

—The Goshen Social and Athletic Association has adopted crimson and white as club colors.

—Mr. George W. Murray has sold the building recently occupied by the Pierce Artesian and Oil Well Supply Co., and a new industry will be started therein.

—Rev. Ezra Tinker, of the Hedding M. E. Church, Poughkeepsie, at one time pastor of the Goshen M. E. Church, has been appointed aide-de-camp on the staff of the department commander of the G. A. R. of the State of New York.

—The complaint against Hiram Flagler, charged with having assaulted Mrs. J. B. Schoonmaker, has been dismissed because of the non-appearance of the complainant. Dr. Barnes, of Middletown, as trustee of the Gurnee property, secured, however, a warrant for Flagler's detention for grand larceny. He is charged with having taken ten tons of hay belonging to the farm and selling it in Florida.

Recorder's Court.

There were three drunks in Recorder's court, this morning, which were disposed of by Justice Wiggins in the absence of Recorder Bradner. Two of the victims were a town of Crawford farmer and his hired man, each of whom paid a fine of three dollars.

Ebenezer Cable, one of Goshen's colored citizens, came to town to spend his pension money, got drunk and was locked up. He was sent down for ten days, for the reason that he hadn't $3 with which to pay his fine.

Who Mailed This Letter.

A large manilla envelope size No. 11, stamped with four (w) cent stamps but without an address, was mailed at the post-office either very late last night or before 6:20 o'clock this morning. Postmaster Elwood will hold it for several days trusting that the sender will see this notice and supply the missing address.

Population of the State Hospital.

According to the Conglomerate, there were, Tuesday, 1,125 patients in the State Hospital for the Insane, in this city, of whom 559 were males and 566 females. During the week two patients were admitted and none discharged.

Hood's Is Wonderful

No less than wonderful are the cures accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla, even after other preparations and physicians' prescriptions have failed. The reason, however, is simple. When the blood is enriched and purified, disease disappears and good health returns, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one true blood purifier.

HOOD'S PILLS are prompt and efficient and do not purge, pain or gripe. 25c.

ANCIENT LOG CABIN.

STANDS ON LAND THAT ONCE BELONGED TO WILLIAM PENN.

With Additions It Is One of the Old Manor Houses and Was the Birthplace of Prominent Families—Finding an English Coin of 170 Years Ago.

In the northwestern part of the pretty little town of Media, the county seat of Delaware county, Pa., on a tract of land known as "Star Mount," owned by Samuel W. Powell, is located a genuine curiosity in the form of an old log house, which contains much to interest the antiquarian, and to afford material for the historian. The structure measures 22 feet in length and is 20 feet wide and 15 feet high. It is said to be one of the original manor houses constructed shortly after the arrival of William Penn and his colony on the banks of the Delaware river. Circumstances point toward that belief, and prove the claim to antiquity, which makes the old log house an important link connecting the distant past with the present.

This house is constructed of oak and chestnut logs hewn from the primeval forest, while standing beside it is a giant oak, the largest by all odds in the surrounding country, which is a living witness of the age of the lowly dwelling which finds shelter beneath its huge outspreading arms. Tree and house are each the complement of the other, and seem destined to continue their intimacy during succeeding years, and perhaps ages.

In the year 1681 A. D., on the 2d day of March, Peter and William Taylor purchased the land upon which these objects of interest stand from William Penn in England, and on the 22d inst. Thomas Powell took title to the land upon which the house and tree stand and adjacent tracts, and after numerous transfers it finally came into the possession of Mr. Powell, who formerly resided in this city, but who now lives in "Star Mount," in northwest Media. Upon discovering the historic value of the house and oak, he subsequently took precautions to preserve the objects of a past age and civilization.

The house is constructed of logs, and to prevent the entrance of cold air they were chinked with mortar. The small windows and doors were hand made, from the primitive oak cut from the forest. The faces and ends of these logs are scarred and defaced by exposure to the storms of at least two centuries, and show plainly the ravages of the "tooth of time," but at heart are as hard and sound as when first placed in position to form a house for one of Penn's followers.

The present owner, desiring to both preserve this ancient structure and to improve its surroundings, added some seven or eight years ago several additional rooms to the original mansion, but outside the massive old chimney is exposed to view, and inside the logs with their plastering, the windows and doors with their wooden latches and strings may be seen, while the low ceiling of homemade boards point to a date when the ax and saw were almost universally used by our forefathers.

At the time when the additions above mentioned were made an old English coin was found. Upon examination the coin proved to be a penny of the reign of King George I. and while the date is almost illegible, it seems to be 1724, or perhaps an earlier date. This old English penny was lying under the old wooden door sill, and had become imbedded in the ground, and was only brought to light by the use of pick and shovel. History and tradition unite in the story in relation to this old house.

Beginning with the river Delaware and reaching as far as portions of Chester county, and bounded also by Ridley and Crum creeks, were some two tracts of land deeded to the Taylors, Powells and others in 1681 by the proprietor and founder of our state, William Penn. Upon each of these two tracts or parcels of land log houses were erected, and one of them was destroyed by fire. One of these houses, the one now owned by Mr. Powell in Upper Providence township, adjoining the town of Media, is the sole survivor, and it is correspondingly prized by him.

The house and old oak, together with the curiosities connected with them, are very antique, and there is no doubt but that the claim of antiquity is well founded. In 1715 it was in the old log cabin that John Powell changed from the Quaker to the Baptist faith, and organized the First Baptist church of Delaware county, known as the Brandywine church. The congregation was formed on June 11, 1715, with 15 members, and among the delegates were Abel Morgan of this city and James Jones and Joseph Eaton of Delaware.

Thus the old house, constructed by a first settler in the virgin west, which extended from far inland to the shores of the Delaware river, has both a civil and a religious history, and has been both the birthplace of prominent families and the habitation within whose walls a prominent denomination of this and surrounding country first sprang into existence.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Hereditary Names.

According to the invariable custom of the Duke of Richmond's family, it is prescribed that the eldest son and the eldest son of the eldest son shall be named after King Charles II, to whom they owe so much. The same principle is pursued in Lord Salisbury's family, where the eldest sons are named James, after James I, who bestowed the earldom of Salisbury and viscountcy of Cranborne on the original founder of the house.

THE STUDY

—of the action of medicines, or vegetable compounds, upon the stomach, and tests in many hundreds of cases, long ago convinced Doctor R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., that all cases of Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint could be cured permanently if the right treatment were given. In support of his belief that he had discovered an alterative extract which he called "Golden Medical Discovery," that would cure these diseases, he collected from all parts of the country the evidence of those who had used his medicine, and he has asked the public to investigate for themselves, as he would be glad to furnish the names and addresses of thousands of people who have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

All interested in the above should send for a great Doctor Book of 1000 pages, treating exhaustively of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, "Liver Complaint," Biliousness, Constipation and Piles, published by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and mailed on receipt of 21 cents in one-cent stamps to cover postage and wrapping only. This book also contains the photographs and testimony of many persons who have suffered from diseases of the digestive organs.

INDIGESTION; SEVERE PAIN IN STOMACH.

THOMAS FLETCHER, of Clifton Station, Fairfax Co., Va., writes:

THOS. FLETCHER, ESQ.

"I suffered the terrible tortures for ten years with what your Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser describes as 'Gastralgia' (pain in stomach). I employed our home-doctor—took ½ dozen bottles of sarsaparilla with no benefit; then I took one-half dozen bottles of a celery compound without any benefit; then eight bottles of iron tonic, yet I was no better; this was in 1880. I then took six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which made a new man of me. I am now fifty-two years old and for the past five years I have worked very hard on my farm. It is impossible for me to say too much for the 'Golden Medical Discovery.'"

MEALS FOR CLERKS.

EMPLOYEES OF LARGE PARIS STORES DINE IN THE BUILDING.

A Tremendous Business In Itself When You Consider the Meals That Are Prepared and Served—Everything Is Done in First Class Style, but It Pays.

The refectories of the vast department stores or "bazaars" of Paris are among the most curious sights of the French capital. As soon as the Bon Marche and the Louvre—dear to the hearts of all American women who make the "grand tour" and prototypes of the colossal establishments in New York and adjacent cities—began to assume great importance their projectors were confronted with the question, "How shall we organize the 'meal times' of these thousands of men and women?"

In France "lunch," as understood in America, is unknown. Every person, gentle and simple, makes of the early morning repast simply a "break-fast" and no more. A bowl of coffee and a large piece of crisp bread for the workingman and woman; the smoking chocolate in a Sevres cup and the brioches which melt in the mouth for the millionaire—those are the only distinctions. For many generations the French have recognized that it is unhealthy to take a hearty meal at 6, 7 or 8 in the morning. So they wait until 11 or 12, and millions wait until 1 o'clock before tasting the first substantial meal of the day. Dinner, a second meal of two or three courses, and in no wise resembling the light repast which Americans know as "supper," comes at 7, 8 or even 9, according to the circumstances of the person. Concierges, or house porters, generally dine at 9, winter and summer, and sit over their meal an hour or two, chatting and laughing. At that late hour the whole family is united, and its little affairs are discussed and settled.

With the organization of the "bazaar" came the need of keeping a constant outlook over the hundreds of young men and women in each department, and economizing each moment of their time between the opening hours and the letting down of the great iron shutters before the immense windows at 6 p. m. precisely. It was with a view of this watch over the employees, rather than because of any philanthropic tendencies, that the owners and managers of the largest "bazaars" decided to make it obligatory for all employees to take their meals at noon and night upon the premises.

The bazaar proprietor said, "We must do this, as we do everything else, with an eye to the advertisement." And so they decided to install their refectories very handsomely and to feed their employees well. The idea has paid from the start.

At the Bon Marche spacious and very handsome halls on the fourth story of the enormous edifice are devoted to the restaurant for the employees. Twelve thousand meals are served daily between 11 and 6 o'clock. Men and women eat in separate halls, and are served with the same politeness and attention that they would receive in restaurants or at "lunch counters"—if lunch counters had ever been inflicted on the French.

At the Louvre about the same number of meals are served, and the arrangements are wonderfully complete. The kitchens, with their seductive array of copper saucepans, and the pantries, with the thousands upon thousands of plates and cups, all marked with the trade mark of the house—a majestic lion couchant, with his paws hanging over the letter "L"—and the little army of white capped and aproned cooks, waiters, bottle washers and potato peelers, are well worth a visit. Nor will the visitor get his back chalked. All is conducted with dignity and refinement, as in the house of a gentleman of fortune.

The caldrons in the kitchens are immense. The visitor may look into one kettle which contains mashed potatoes for 3,000 men, and into another in which soup for 5,000 persons is simmering. Then the bottle department is something stupendous. Twelve thousand half bottles of good wine, guaranteed unadulterated, are served out daily. The battalion of bottle washers is busy from dawn to dusk, fetching up the rosy liquid or the yellowish white wine in huge pitchers of wood three feet high, and then bottling it. Both the Louvre and the Bon Marche have wine cellars of vast extent for customers as well as employees.

At the Louvre there are three table services of 700 each for the men. At the Bon Marche a larger number can be fed at once. Each category of employees has its special room. The heads of departments dine together, and never mix with the head clerks of each counter. The under clerks eat their boiled beef and roast chicken without being troubled by the presence of their chiefs. Then the lumberjacks, the packers, the stablemen, the elevator men, the runners, the sweepers and lighters, have their long table, and finally, the garcons, or the men who wear the uniform of the house and accompany the delivery wagons and receive money for purchases, have their particular room, and are allowed to come and go more irregularly than the others because of the peculiar nature of their service. The "ladies" observe the same classification in their eating rooms, and are allowed to gossip as freely as they will. There are no spies; they say what they please on the theory that they are not under the control of the establishment during the time of the repasts.—Paris Letter in Cincinnati Enquirer.

Inclined to Assist Him.

"You don't object to a contributor dropping into poetry once in awhile, I presume?" said the caller, with an affable smile.

"Certainly not, sir. Sit down," replied the editor, pushing the waste basket toward him.—Chicago Tribune.

Cherry Pectoral.

"Early in the Winter, I took a severe cold which developed into an obstinate, hacking cough, very painful to endure and troubling me day and night, for nine weeks, in spite of numerous remedies. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral being recommended me, I began to take it, and inside of 24 hours, I was relieved of the tickling in my throat. Before I finished the bottle, my cough was nearly gone. I cannot speak too highly of its excellence."—Mrs. E. Bosch, Eaton, Ohio.

A NEW CALIFORNIA STAR.

Mrs. Margaret C. Graham's Successful Stories of the Golden State.

California as a literary mine would seem to have been well nigh worked out by Bret Harte and Joaquin Miller, but Mrs. Margaret Collier Graham has struck a fresh new lead that is panning out gold and glory for its discoverer. Mrs. Graham is the author of "Stories of the Foothills," which are so realistic and so distinctly Californian that Joaquin Miller says he can smell the sagebrush in their atmosphere. She was born in Iowa, near Keokuk, in 1850, and there spent the first 25 years of her life. She is of Scotch-Irish stock, and her grandparents were strict Presbyterians. She was educated at a Presbyterian school in Monmouth, Ills., and in 1873 married Donald M. Graham, a promising young lawyer of Bloomington, Ills. She often assisted her husband in his work, and during their three years' residence in Bloomington she gained considerable insight into real estate law, and the knowledge afterward proved of great value to her. In 1876 Mr. Graham's health became so poor that he bought a small ranch at Pasedena, Cal., and devoted himself to outdoor life.

MARGARET C. GRAHAM.

The work proved too severe for his strength, however, and they removed to Los Angeles, where for five years Mrs. Graham tenderly nursed her husband and taught school. About this time, too, the literary possibilities of California impressed her, and two of her stories—"Brice" and "Colonel Bob Jarvis"—were published in the San Francisco Argonaut and were very favorably received. Her husband's real estate ventures proved successful, but his health steadily failed, and she devoted her entire time to caring for him, until death closed his eyes in 1890.

She spent two years winding up the complicated affairs of his estate, and then again turned her attention to literature. "The Withrow Water Right" was promptly accepted by The Atlantic Monthly and "Toby" made an immediate hit with The Century. When the tales were published and issued later in a volume they received a most hearty reception from the critics and the reading public.

AN AIR CASTLE ON EARTH.

Miss Willard's Old Home to Be a Retreat For W. C. T. U. Veterans.

One of the favorite air castles of Miss Frances E. Willard, the world famous worker in the cause of temperance, is about to take tangible form on earth. She has long desired that her old home, Forest Home, in Janesville, Wis., should become a national place of retirement for deserving veteran members of the FORREST HOME.

Women's Christian Temperance union, and Chicago temperance workers are now hard at work to accomplish the coveted result. Forest Home farm is a beautiful [illegible], and comprises 200 acres of land, half of which are to be devoted forever to [illegible] of their proposed home, [illegible] are to be carried out to a [illegible]

The [illegible] surround [illegible] and passed [illegible] beautiful [illegible] Near the [illegible] is well [illegible] and [illegible] are [illegible] 150 acres, [illegible] of Chicago, the [illegible] feet, are to be cut up into about 250 building lots, [illegible] front by 150 feet deep, and are to be placed on the market under a street exhibition agreement and at a reasonable valuation. When 200 of these lots are sold, the 50 acres will be deeded to the National W. C. T. U. for all time, to be used exclusively as a home for the workers of the nation who have fought a good fight for God and home and native land."

The officers of the union have offered to accept the home and its site under these conditions, and there is an excellent ground for belief that the thousands of friends of the order will purchase the 200 lots and make possible the proposed "Rest Home," as the institution is to be called. Miss Willard is in thorough sympathy with the project, and will doubtless be one of the happiest women in the United States when Forest Home farm is the property of the W. C. T. U. Since her family owned the farm it has several times changed hands.

THE BOARD OF CANVASSERS.

Counsel for Martin J. Keogh Make a Sharp Fight for Their Legal Rights—Republican Supervisors Try to Keep Them from Before the Canvassing Committees, but Yield at Last.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

GOSHEN, Nov. 12—The Board of Supervisors of Orange county acting as a Board of Canvassers met at the county building, Goshen, to day at noon, and were called to order by Deputy County Clerk Charles G. Elliott.

On motion of Mr. Adams, Mr. John A. Patterson, of Woodbury, was chosen Chairman. After the members had taken the oath of office Mr. Elliott handed them the returns from the inspectors of election, and on motion of Mr. Roberson the Board took a recess until 1.30 o'clock.

At the afternoon session Mr. Boyd moved that two committees of six members each be appointed to canvass the vote. Carried and the following committees appointed:

Messrs. Boyd, Fredericks, Emslie, G. A. Durland, Webb and Clark.

Messrs. Loughran, Lawson, Iseman, Nearpass, Bradley and Roberson.

Then Messrs Vanamee, Watts & Vail, of Middletown, Messrs. O'Neill & Royce, of Middletown, and Hon. Henry Bacon, of Goshen, filed appearances on behalf of Martin J. Keogh, one of the candidates for Justice of the Supreme Court.

Hon. Lewis Bedell, of Goshen, appeared representing the interests of Mr. Hugo Hirsh, a candidate for the same office. From the unofficial returns it would appear that in this judicial district the vote for these candidates is very close and it will probably take the official returns to decide the election. Both candidates claim it now. At any rate neither party will leave any stone unturned to secure the office.

Mr. Adams arose and said that he spoke as a Republican and asked whether the counsel intended to appear before committees above named. Then Mr. Brazee put the matter before the Board by moving that counsel be allowed to go before the committees, and the matter was then open for discussion and it was thoroughly discussed. Mr. Vanamee stated that counsel had a right to appear before the Board, and as the committees above appointed were acting for the Board, he had a perfect right to appear before the committees. If they made any error of judgment Mr. Vanamee claimed the right to bring the matter before the Board for action. He stated that he desired to take every precaution on behalf of his client to see that every ballot legally cast for him was counted.

Mr Bedell stated that he was present on behalf of Mr. Hirsh in the same capacity that counsel appeared for Mr. Keogh. That he only desired perfect fairness in the matter, but as he alone could not be present in two committee rooms at one time he believed it but just that the committees should report to the Board and then their returns could be examined before the Board had canvassed them. He he had no authority to associate counsel wit him.

Mr. Goodsell remarked that he saw no reason why the committees should allow counsel before them They could see the returns before the Board as well as in the committee room.

Mr. Royce stated that his object in getting before the committees was to see if the returns which they reported as correct were correct. He was familiar with the method of canvassing votes and he wished to forestall any mistakes of this kind which might be made. He claimed it as his right as a citizen as well as counsel to see the ballots counted and said the Board had no right to keep the returns from his view for even an instant.

Mr. Bacon said that authorities were unanimous in conceding the right of counsel to appear before the Board and then asked by what authority the Board or committees did the real canvassing behind closed doors.

Then Mr. Vanamee demanded an opportunity to watch every step of the canvass, that the returns be not permitted to go out of his sight for one instant. He said there was not the slightest suspicion that the committees would manipulate the returns, but speaking of the theory of law, they certainly had the opportunity to do it. He said if counsel were not permitted to watch the committees canvass the vote the Board would jeopardize the election of officers in whom they were more interested than they were in his client.

Then Mr. Adams arose, saying that he perceived that was a concert of action on the part of counsel That they had begun to demand and even threaten. That there was but one way to test the matter and he moved that the committees proceed to canvass the vote. This was carried unanimously and the committees retired. They finally decided to allow one representative of each side in their rooms.

The committees afterward reported a number of returns as correct The Board adjourned until 10 30, Wednesday.

OUR DEFECTIVE SEWER SYSTEM

How Claims for Damages for Flooded Cellers are Made Possible—One Small Pipe Expected to Carry Off the Sewage and Surface Water of Half the City

The suit for damages commenced in Justice Powelson's court by H. W. Purdy and the claim for damages made before the Common Council, Thursday night, by J. & P. Cummings, on account of the backing up of sewage into their buildings, should be thoroughly investigated by the authorities. It will not do to allow these claims to take their own course as has been the custom in the past, for the reason that to all appearances both parties have just cause for action against the city, and if so, there are others who have equally good claims for damages and unless the cause is removed there will be no end to claims for damages.

Mr. Purcy, in a communication, has said that his basement on Academy avenue is only flooded during a storm, which proves that surface water is allowed to run into the sanitary sewer. He has on more than one occasion requested the Common Council to investigate his claim.

The flooding of the Cummings Brother's cellar only occurs during storms, and it is not difficult to prove that the cause is the emptying of storm water into a 12 inch trunk sanitary sewer that has all it can do to carry off the sewage, and isn't half big enough to carry off the storm water.

The Monhagen avenue sewer and the Wickham avenue sewer, the latter an 18 inch pipe, as well as the Mulberry, Canal and South street sewers, all empty into the Fulton street sewer and these laterals collect all of the sewage of the western portion of the city. How much of the surface water of that locality is carried away in storm sewers, we do not know, but all of the storm water in that portion of the city drained by the Wickham avenue sewer, which means all the territory between Highland and Wallkill avenues, including the former to Prospect street and Hanford street, from Wilcox avenue to West Main street, empties into the 18-inch Wickham avenue sewer, which isn't large enough to carry it off during heavy rains and this, in addition to the sewage, the 12 inch Fulton street sewer is expected to carry away. Is it any wonder then that cellars connected with this 12 inch trunk sewer are filled with filth during storms and that the lateral sewers are gorged and premises flooded and much damage caused in different parts of the town?

The small pipe theory for sewers has been in use in Middletown for some time. Small pipes may be all right if no surface water is allowed to run into the sanitary sewers, but the fact remains that these small pipes are expected to do impossibilities, hence these claims for damages.

It is claimed that there is some arrangement by which the surface water in the lateral sewers passes into Monhagen Brook and only the solids enter the trunk sewer. The fact is that while this plan may be all right theoretically, practically it don't work.

There is no dodging the fact that the storm water of the city must be taken care of independently of the sanitary sewers, or we must have larger trunk sewers that will carry away both the sewage and surface water.

It will cost more to pay claims for damages and "legal expenses" in defending suits in a short time than it would to build larger trunk sewers or care for our surface water independent of the sanitary sewer system.

LOST IN NEW YORK

No Trace Found of Missing Farmer James

The search in New York for John H. James, of Moodna, this county, has not thus far resulted in getting any trace of him since he parted from his niece on 23d street, Wednesday morning. He had with him when he left home a check for $1,200 drawn on a New York bank and $800 in cash. His family attempted to stop payment on the check, but it had already been cashed by a man whose description does not answer to that of Mr. James.

A tired stomach is very much like a sprained ankle. If you suffer from any of the symptoms of dyspepsia, your stomach is tired. It needs a crutch. We must relieve it of all work for a time, or until it is restored to its natural strength. To do this successfully, we must use a food which is already digested outside of the body, and which will aid the digestion of other foods that may be taken with it. Such a product is the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

The Shaker have utilized the digestive principles present in plants for the manufacture of this article, and its success has been truly phenomenal. You can try it for the nominal sum of 10 cents, as sample bottles are sold by all druggists at this price.

WARD & LOGAN ASSIGN.

Dull Business and Slow Collections Cause the Failure of an Old Newburgh Firm.

The well known firm of Ward & Logan, painters and dealers in painters' supplies at Newburgh, made an assignment, yesterday afternoon, to District Attorney Hirschberg. The assets and libilities are not yet known. Dull business and slow collections are the causes assigned for the failure. The business was founded in 1853 by Peter Ward and C. M. Leonard. After Mr. Leonard's death in 1878, the firm became Ward & Logan and after Mr Ward's death in 1891 his son Charles succeeded to his interest in the business The firm employed many hands and had contracts in many places.

'A ROMANCE OF COON HOLLOW'

Realistic Scenery a Feature of This Drama of Southern Plantation Life.

"A Romance of Coon Hollow," which will be seen at the Casino, Friday evening, has some of the most exquisite scenery on the road. The first act reveals an autumn view of a typical southern plantation, with sunset and moonlight effects, and contains a splendid electrical display.

The second act is a fac simile of "Coon Hollow," a rugged glen in the Tennessee hills, painted from sketches made on the spot, and is made sensational by a bursting dam and flood.

The third act shows a wood landing on the Mississippi, and night view of the famous Lee Natchez steamboat race, the boats being lighted up and under full head of steam.

The last act is given to an actual cotton press in operation, and is thrillingly dramatic The play will be given here with all the effects used in the original run at the 14th street Theatre, New York. In the wood landing scene is introduced a rollicking melange of songs and dances by a troupe of colored boys and girls, including two quartettes.

The Philharmonic Mandolin Club.

At a meeting of the Middletown Philharmonic Mandolin Club held at 38 Broad street, Monday evening, the by-laws and diploma as drawn up by the committee appointed for that purpose were approved and adopted and ordered printed.

The diploma, which is the work of Vincent D. Maggio, the organizer of the club, is now on exhibition at Shannon's art store on North street The drawings were all made with a pen and reflect great credit upon Mr. Maggio

AMBITIOUS WOMEN

MAKE HEROES OF MEN.

She Will Brave Anything for the Man She Loves.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS]

When an ambitious women loves a man she will spur him to heroic efforts.

She will dare with him the rigors of the frozen North, and encouragehim in daring dangers almost unsurmountable.

Women are by nature ambitious according to their physical and mental strength. Hope and ambition come with perfect health, but vanish before sickness and despair.

American women are, unfortunately, particularly subject to those painful female diseases that are the cause of so much hopelessness and misery.

Could all women realize the undeniable fact that they suffer unnecessarily, how much brighter life would be!

Lydia E. Pinkham devoted her life to the study of female diseases and their cause; and she discovered in the Vegetable Compound an absolute remedy. It succeeds in removing the cause of the trouble.

Women who rely more upon their own natural common-sense, rather than on the theories of their physicians, write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass, and are soon restored to health.

Here is a living example: "Four months ago I was unable to stand on my feet. I had falling of the womb, kidney trouble, and inflammation of the bladder; the backache and bearing-down pains were dreadful.

My physician could give me no relief A friend said, try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Well, I did Oh, if every suffering woman would do the same, they would be cured, cured absolutely and entirely, as I am" Mrs Wm M Morey, 20 Seymour St, Pittsfield, Mass.
